

Graveyards of Rye – Master list – Rye Heritage Commission, 2023

Notes:

- A. Visiting all off-road graveyards must secure permission of adjacent property owner
- B. If you want to adopt and become custodian of a graveyard, e-mail Rye Heritage Comm. chair Alex Herlihy – alexherlihy@comcast.net
- C. If 3rd column is blank, graveyard needs to be adopted
- D. NH state law in 2012 reaffirmed that family graveyards (cemeteries are public burying grounds) are not private property and do not belong to the adjacent property owner.
- E. RHC has a driving tour of some of most prominent roadside graveyards. Will send on request.
