A. Call to Order

Chair Coffey called the meeting to order at 5:15 p.m.

B. Effective Community Communication Workshop

The Rye Historic District Commission, in partnership with the N.H. Preservation Alliance, held a workshop on 'Effective Communications for Historic District Commissions'. The Preservation Alliance was able to offer this training through grant support from the N.H. Division of Historical Resources.

In attendance on behalf of the N.H. Preservation Alliance to give the presentation included:

Nicole Flynn, Field Service Representative;

Maggie Stier, Advancement Projects Coordinator; and

Barbara MacLeod, who gave a presentation titled 'Break Through Media Training in the Digital Age'.

Rebecca Mitchell, Stratham Heritage Commission, was present as a mentor and commentator to give talk about her experiences and to help answer questions.

The full presentation is available on the Town of Rye Website under Rye Public Library Live Streaming, Historic District Commission, October 25, 2021. The first part of the workshop is also available on the website, which was held on October 18th.

C. Other Business
