- Other persons present during the nonpublic session: Lee Arthur, Recreation Director

- Description of the discussion and final decisions:

It was discussed that four candidates expressed an interest in serving on the Recreation Commission, Stephen King, Todd Cronin, Georgina Saravia, and Carrie Barron. Georgina Saravia had indicated by email that she was happy to get to know Rye better and let someone else serve for now.

All candidates were invited by Lee Arthur to the Recreation Commission Meeting to introduce themselves to the Commissioners. Stephen King and Todd Cronin were in attendance.

It was discussed that both candidates in attendance (Stephen King and Todd Cronin) are qualified. Stephen was a past Recreation Commission member. The Recreation Commission has only one opening at this time. Commission members discussed the upcoming initiatives that the Recreation Commission is going to have to deal with, including warrant articles and space needs for storage, after school program and programming.

Commissioners decided that at this time that Stephen King has the most institutional knowledge and can likely be most helpful for the upcoming budgets sessions and town warrant discussions.
